A.C.E. FALL 2021

Hebrew 11: The Hall of Faith
Room 113,
Mr. Art Beauchene

How to Live the Transformed Life
Room 114,
Mr. Bob Bishop

This chapter is about people who, amid great obstacles, continued to trust in their God. This portion of Scripture is commonly referred to as "The Hall of Faith." The concept of "Faith" is greatly misunderstood in our day, as to what it is and what it does. This class will take a multi-dimensional look at those Old Testament saints who had faith in God's promises and persevered to the very end. Our study is geared to take us beyond the initial commitment one has to Christ by faith, to living a Life of Faith--a faith that sustains us through the world's trials and tribulations and endures to the end. "Without faith, it is impossible to please God."

What does it mean to live a spirit-filled, Christ-like, Godly, transformed life? In this class, we will be searching Scripture and discussing how to encourage each other to live out our faith. Come if you want to know how to grow deeper and stronger in the Christian walk. Come with your questions, Bibles, and open hearts to this interactive, challenging, uplifting class.

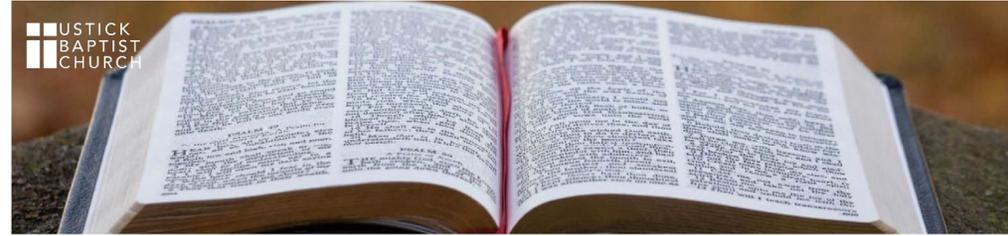

Science, Creation, and Evolution
Room 115,
Dr. Tracy Hillman

Many believe that science has discredited the Bible and its account of creation. This class examines if science and the Bible are opposed to each other or compliment each other by looking at the facts and theories of creation.

All classes meet on Sundays at 9 a.m.
