Thank You

My Dear UBC Church Family, What an honor it is to call you my family. You have reached out and showed me so much love and compassion during this very difficult time in my life. I know it's been so hard for you too as you all loved "Pastor Mike" and it's been so evident through your acts of service towards me, my mother-in-law, my kids and even our grandchildren. Thank you all so much for the cards, emails and texts when Mike and I were home sick.

Thank you for the amazing meals that were set up to provide for mine and Mike's siblings that came and stayed with me after Mike went to heaven. Thank you for the meals that were brought to the church for our large extended family, the weekend of the Memorial Service. And thank you for the financial gift sent to me to help cover some expenses...love you all and will treasure in my heart your acts of service that you poured out on me and my whole family. You've all displayed the LOVE OF CHRIST in action and I'll never forget it! Sincerely, your sister in Christ, Karen Beaudin
